Dear Families,

Our class is working very hard on earning "self control," our final fruit of the spirit! I am very impressed with how far they have all come this year.

We had a discussion as a class and decided that two of our friends deserve special recognition for showing self control all year. I have a special plan in mind for those two that will be a surprise to everyone.

I am certain the entire class will earn it so I'd like to have a special celebration for them after chapel that day. Everyone is invited to attend. I will see if we can get a bigger room upstairs for it otherwise we will be very cozy in our room. I was thinking of having sparkling apple juice, regular apple juice, and maybe a cookie cake.

On another note, the class is very close to earning their camping day. It would be amazing that morning if anyone could help set up a tent. I will keep you informed of our planned day, weather depending.

Reading Corner

Superkids:

Our next unit will focus on the letters K and Qu. We will have some fun Q and U activities to celebrate "QU Together Forever."

Superkid fun will include kings and queens and a lot of pretending and acting.

Spelling/Writing: Daily superkids prompts.

Religion

One in Christ:

Next week's topic is Thomas Sees Jesus

Chapel Offering:

Kansas City Hospice House

Memory: We believe that Jesus died and rose again.

1 Thessalonians 4:14

Show and Tell

Letterd Q and V

Math

We didn't quite get finished with our subtraction unit this week so it will be extended into next week.

I am very happy to see a greater understanding this week in subtracting a number from itself.
