Lutheran Schools Week

The week of January 23- 27 is a national celebration of Lutheran Schools. Within the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, we now serve over 250,000 students in early childhood centers, elementary and high schools. We have completed a stringent process and were accredited by the National Lutheran School Association as we strive for excellence in every aspect of our educational ministry.

We will celebrate this special week with theme dress-up days and fun activities. Our theme for this year is: Making Disciples for Life.

Tuesday: Farmer Day (dress like a farmer or farm animal)

Thursday: Pajama Day (dress in p.j.s and bring your favorite stuffie)

Our Bible Story Jesus Heals Jairus's Daughter

Scripture for the Month:

Mark 1:17

"Come follow me, and I will make you fishers of men."

King's Kids Will Like the Letter "Kk"

Our next slanty stick letter is the letter Kk. Two stories that our kids really enjoy are the books, A Friend For Baby Kangaroo and I'm the King of the Mountain.

We will explore the story of the healing of Jairus's daughter. We will also discuss how God works His healing on our physical bodies and gives us people who help us when we are sick. We will stress to the children that the greatest healing that God does is healing our hearts through faith in Jesus.

Next Week:

Something White
