Handwriting News

Your child's day begins with recognizing and matching the letters of his/her name. We are concentrating on writing the first letter of their name. We will work to correct pencil grips and teach the kids to always start their letters at the top. It is important that we start good handwriting habits at school and at home.

*The Excellent letter "Ee"*

Our next "tall stick" letter is the letter "Ee". We will get cracking on our study of the letter "Ee" by reading the book Green Eggs and Ham and playing an egg relay game. We will also explore emotions and practice what they look like in a mirror. The book The Enormous Turnip is an old Russian folktale that will teach the kids about team work!
