Religion

During our religion time, we have been learning about Samuel, King Saul, and David. Saul was very jealous of David and even more so he was upset that his power as king was going to be taken away someday. In Mark 7:20-22, Jesus said, "What comes out of a person is what defiles him. For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts, murder, theft, adultery, coveting, etc.

In contrast, David received his promises from God; but through God's strength, he maintained an attitude of humility. He was content and willing to be used in whatever way God directed.

Samuel was the prophet who anointed David and Saul and throughout the life of Samuel he was used by God to help keep King Saul on God's path.

By God's grace, we can cultivate a tranquil heart, a heart of peace, a heart that brings healing to relationships. The Holy Spirit is willing and able to help us reflect godly words and actions. As you take time this Thanksgiving week to observe your thankfulness and how much God has blessed you with remember ALL of your blessings from the smallest to the largest, especially your faith.
