Happy Martin Luther King Jr. Day!!

A Note from the Teacher

Happy Friday!

If your child has books from home which they would like to bring and read during their reading time, I encourage you to send them with your student. Remember students are always encouraged to work on their homework in class once they have completed their in-class work.

Do not forget to sign the work habits form, fill out the church attendance, and sign the turquoise graded paper folder which are to be returned to class on Monday mornings.

National Lutheran School's Week is on Monday, January 23rd – Friday, January 27th. Don't forget there are different dress up days each day this week.

On Friday, January 27th, there is an early dismissal day @ 12:15 P.M. Lunch will be provided for the students.

On Tuesday, January 31st Book-It for January is due to school.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please give me a call, or send me an e-mail. Thank you for your support!

Religion

During our religion time, we have been learning about the New Testament and who is Jesus, the Son of God in stories about the disciples, Jesus' first miracle in Cana, and when Jesus blesses the children.

For thirty years, God's Son lived in this world and only a few people knew who He was. Others might have realized that Jesus was special because of His sinlessness and devotion to the Father, but they didn't realize how special He was.

John baptized Jesus. He heard the Father's words and saw the dove. Now John knew that Jesus was the Lamb of God who had come to take away the sin of the world.

John's introduction set off a chain of telling. Andrew realized this man was the Messiah. He wanted to tell his brother Peter. Soon after Jesus met Philip. Philip then told Nathanael.

Now it is our privilege and opportunity to keep that chain reaction going, to keep introducing new people to Jesus. In God's Word, point to Jesus as the perfect sacrifice for sin. Tell others that He is the Savior of all.
